The reliability of information

The information contained on this site is for the use of Fields Fireman Project Ltd's clients and may not be legally applicable in all cases. Fields Fireman Project Ltd makes every effort to ensure that the content of this site is accurate and up to date. The material contained on this site does not constitute an official statement and Fields Fireman Projekt Ltd. does not accept any responsibility for the consequences of the use of this site. The information is provided for the use of Fields Fireman Projekt Ltd's clients and is not necessarily accurate. Fields Fireman Project Ltd. takes all reasonable steps to ensure that the content of the Internet pages is accurate and up to date. Fields Fireman Project Ltd reserves the right to change product specifications without notice. No reliance may be placed in any legal sense on the statements contained in the Internet pages. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Fields Fireman Project Ltd. disclaims all liability with regard to the foregoing. In addition to the above general disclaimer, Fields Fireman Projekt Kft. excludes, to the fullest extent permitted by law, its liability for any damages suffered by the user arising from the use of and access to the Internet pages.

Privacy

Fields Fireman Projekt Kft. respects the privacy of visitors to this site. Fields Fireman Project Ltd will only collect personal information about you (such as your name, address, telephone number or e-mail address) ("Personal Information") if you voluntarily provide it. If you provide Personal Information, it may be used for marketing purposes or to contact you. If you would like to remove any information you have already provided from our database, please contact us at the email address or telephone number at the bottom of this page. We will then take appropriate action to remove your data from our database. Fields Fireman Project Ltd. respects the personal rights of all individuals (hereinafter referred to as users) who visit our website. This paragraph outlines the information collected and stored by Fields Fireman Project Ltd and how it is used.

Personal data

Fields Fireman Project Ltd. does not collect personally identifiable information (i.e., name, address, telephone number, or e-mail address, "Personal Information") about users unless users voluntarily provide their information. If you do not wish to have your Personal Information recorded, please do not provide it. Where you provide Fields Fireman Project Ltd with your Personal Data, it is and will be stored by Fields Fireman Project Ltd for marketing, market research, sales tracking and contact purposes.

Non-personal information collected automatically

In some cases, we may collect non-personal information about users. These types of information may include, but are not limited to, the type of Internet browser used, the type of computer operating system used, and the website domain name from which you accessed our website or advertisement.

Information that may be automatically placed on users' hard drives

When you view our Internet pages, we may store certain information on your computer. This information takes the form of a unique identification program, called a "cookie" or similar file, and can help us in a number of ways. For example, unique identifiers allow us to tailor a website or advertisement to users' interests and preferences. Most web browsers give you the option to delete the unique identifier from your hard disk, block it, or display a warning message before storing it. For more information on these features, please refer to the browser description or help.

Contact

If you have provided Personal Information on the Sites and you would like us to delete this information from our records, please contact us at the email address at the bottom of this page or call our main telephone number. We will make every effort to delete this information from our existing files as soon as possible.

Governing laws

This site is created and operated in accordance with the laws of Hungary. In the event of any disputes relating to this site, the provisions of the applicable Hungarian law shall prevail, and in the event of any litigation, the provisions of the Hungarian Civil Procedure Code shall prevail and the Hungarian Courts shall have jurisdiction.
